Students of the Week:

Matthew and Madison - Thank you for working so hard on your poems and being chosen to represent our class for this year's declamation showcase.

I would also like to recognize all the students in class as well. We have all been working hard on this difficult unit. I am proud of all of them and the efforts they are putting in. The work is difficult and they have had such a great disposition.

Classroom/School News:

 Dr. Seuss Week has been a lot of fun so far! Don't forget that tomorrow is career day. If the children are not dressing up as their future self, they will need to wear a school uniform.

 Thank you to _____ and _____ for representing our class so well with the Declamation Showcase on March 3rd. You did an amazing job!

 Thank you for all of the donations to ACTS. They are extremely grateful for all that we have done to help. We are continuing to collect undergarments monthly since there continues to be a high need for them. For March, our focus will be collecting "canned meals". Examples of this would be soups, canned meat, ravioli, etc.

 With spring cleaning knocking at our doors, please consider donating your gently used clothes to an organization like ACTS. I know the children's hospitals love donations of "G" rated movies.

Looking ahead, I would like to begin collect tabs from cans for the Ronald McDonald House. If you can, begin collecting them and send them in when you want them out of the house. I will have a collection jar in the classroom for these donations. More information will be coming home soon.
